Good morning, Your Excellency -

I am writing to let you know of an event that I hope the British Slovene community may find interesting. "Once Upon A Time In Trieste" is a new play which will be performed at Buxton and Manchester Fringe festivals next month. Our hero, Pinko Radič, is an ethnic Slovenian trying to live in Trieste in 1938, during the height of Mussolini's Italianisation of the Slavic people of the city. Pinko is assigned the task of assassinating Mussolini and the play unfolds as he tries to come to terms with his actions. To further complicate his life, he somehow finds himself trapped in a room with a celebrated aristocrat from Trieste's past - a delusional Habsburg princess from the previous century.

Whilst the subject matter is serious, the play itself is quite light in tone and blends fact and fiction from two different historical eras using the magic of a little time travel. All details can be found on our facebook page (https://www.facebook.com/pg/silverpineproductions/events/?ref=page_internal) but please don't hesitate to email me if you'd like to know anything more.

With my very best regards,
Anna
